Organ – A Joyous Carol based on Quittez Pasteurs Léon Roques (1839-1923)

Carol – Mary's Lullaby

See the child that Mary bore
On her lap so softly sleeping,
In a stable cold and poor
Ox and ass their vigil keeping.

Sing lullaby, sing lullaby
My own dear son, my child.
Lullaby, sing lullaby
Lullaby, my little baby.

Flights of angels round his head
Sing him joyful hymns of greeting
Peace on earth, goodwill to men
Each to each the song repeating.

Shepherds kneeling by his bed
Offer homage without measure.
Wise men, by a bright star led Bring him gifts of richest treasure

Words & Music: John Rutter (b.1945)

Carol – Come leave your sheep

Come leave your sheep,
Your ewes with lambs a feeding,
O shepherds, hear
Our message of good cheer;
No longer weep;
The angel tidings heeding,
To Bethlehem haste away!
Our Lord is born this happy day.

He lieth there
within a lowly manger;
An infant poor
He languisheth full sore.

God's loving care
Hath saved us all from danger
And brought us to his fold;
Now own His faithful love revealed of old.

Ye sages three Arrayed in royal splendor,
Your homage pay;
a king is born this day.
The star ye see
Its radiance must surrender
Before our Sun most bright;
Your gifts are precious in his sight.

Come Holy Ghost,
Of blessings source eternal,
Our souls aspire
with thy celestial fire;
The heavenly host
Praise the Lord supernal
And sing the peace on earth
God gives us by his holy birth.

Words: Traditional French Carol, English words by John Rutter
Music: John Rutter (b. 1945)

Carol – Angels' Carol

Have you heard the sound of the angel voices
Ringing out so sweetly, ringing out so clear?
Have you seen the star shining out so brightly
As a sign from God that Christ the Lord is here?
Have you heard the news that they bring from heaven
To the humble shepherds who have waited long?

Gloria in excelsis Deo!
Hear the Angels sing their joyful song.

He is come in peace in the winter's stillness,
Like a gentle snowfall in the gentle night;
He is come in joy like the sun at morning
Filling the world with radiance and light.
He is come in love as the child of Mary;
In a simple stable we have seen his birth.

Gloria in excelsis Deo!
Hear the Angels singing 'Christ is born'.

He will bring new light to a world in darkness,
Like a bright star shining in the skies above;
He will bring new hope to the waiting nations
When he comes to reign in purity and love.
Let the earth rejoice at the Savior's coming;
Let the heavens answer with the joyful morn.

Gloria in excelsis Deo!
Hear the Angels singing 'Christ is born'.

Words & Music: John Rutter (b.1945)

Carol – In the Bleak Midwinter

In the bleak midwinter,
frosty wind made moan,
earth stood hard as iron,
water like a stone;
snow had fallen, snow on snow,
snow on snow,
in the bleak midwinter,
long ago.

Enough for him, whom cherubim,
worship night and day,
a breast full of milk,
and a manger full of hay,
Enough for him, who angels,
fall down before,
the ox and ass and camel,
which adore.

Carol – What Sweeter Music

What sweeter musick can we bring
Than a Caroll, for to sing
The Birth of this our heavenly King?
Awake the Voice! Awake the String!

Dark and dull night, flie hence away,
And give the honour to this Day,
That sees December turn'd to May.

We see Him come, and know him ours,
Who with His Sunshine, and His showers.
Turnes all the patient ground to flowers.

The Darling of the world is come,
And fit it is, we find a roome
To welcome Him. The nobler part
Of all the house here, is the heart,

Which we will give Him; and bequeath
This Hollie, and this Ivie Wreath,
To do him honour; who's our King,
And Lord of all this Revelling.

Words: John Herrick (1591-1674)
Music: John Rutter (b.1945)

What can I give him,
poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd,
I would bring a lamb;
if I were a wise man,
I would do my part;
yet what I can I give him,
give my heart .

Why does the chilling Winter's morne
Smile, like a field beset with corne?
Or smell like a Meadow newly-shorne,
Thus, on the sudden? Come and see
The cause, why things thus fragrant be:

'Tis He is borne, whose quickning Birth
Gives life and luster public mirth,
To Heaven, and the under-Earth.

Recitative And there were shepherds in the same country, abiding in the field,
keeping watch by night over their flock.
And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them,
and the glory of the Lord shone about them,
and they were sore afraid.
And the angel said to them, Be not afraid, Behold, for I bring good tidings of great joy,
which shall be to all the people.
For unto you this day a Savior is born, which is Christ the Lord, in the city of David.

All stand as the Sacred Ministers and acolytes enter the church.

Chorale Break forth, O beauteous heavenly light,
And usher in the morning;
Ye shepherds, shrink not with afright,
But hear the angel's warning.
This Child, now weak in infancy,
Our confidence and joy shall be,
The power of Satan breaking,
Our peace eternal making.

Words: Luke 2:8-11, Johann Rist (1641)
Music: J.S. Bach (1685-1750)

Hymn [27]

1. Hark, the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King,
Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled.
Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
With the angelic host proclaim,
'Christ is born in Bethlehem.'
Hark, the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.
2. Christ, by highest heaven adored,
Christ, the everlasting Lord,
Late in time behold him come,
Offspring of the Virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see:
Hail, the incarnate Deity,
Pleased as man with man to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel.
Hark, the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.
3. Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.
Risen with healing in his wings,
Light and life to all he brings Hail, the Sun of Righteousness.
Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace:
Hark, the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.

The Liturgy of the Word

All sit.

The First Lesson – A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness-- on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this. (9:2-7)

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The choir now sings the Gradual – Cantate Domino

- 1 Sing to the Lord a new song; *
sing to the Lord, all the whole earth.
- 2 Sing to the Lord and bless his Name; *
proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.
- 3 Declare his glory among the nations * and his wonders among all peoples.
- 4 For great is the Lord and greatly to be praised; *
he is more to be feared than all gods.
- 11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is in it; *
let the field be joyful and all that is therein.
- 12 Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy before the Lord when he comes, *
when he comes to judge the earth.

Words: Psalm 96:1-4, 11-12

Music: Anglican Chant, David Hurd (b. 1950)

The Second Lesson – A Reading from the Letter of Paul to Titus

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds. (2:11-14)

Lector The Word of the Lord.
Choir and People Thanks be to God.

Words: Traditional

Music: Healy Willan (1928)

The people kneel, then the Celebrant continues

All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of

The Celebrant proceeds

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God.

Because thou didst give Jesus Christ, thine only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Ghost, was made very Man of the substance of the Virgin Mary his mother; that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become thy children.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see — I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

1. O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
the silent stars go by;
yet in thy dark streets shineth
the everlasting Light;
the hopes and fears of all the years
are met in thee tonight.
2. For Christ is born of Mary;
and gathered all above, while mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth!
and praises sing to God the King,
and peace to men on earth.
3. How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
the blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming,
but in this world of sin,
where meek souls will receive him,
still the dear Christ enters in.
4. Where children pure and happy pray to the blessed Child, where misery cries out to thee,
Son of the Mother mild;
where charity stands watching and faith holds wide the door, the dark night wakes, the glory breaks,
and Christmas comes once more.
5. O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray;
cast out our sin and enter in,
be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
the great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
our Lord Emmanuel!

The Peace

Choir and People The peace of the Lord be always with you.
 And with thy spirit.

All may exchange a sign of Christ’s peace.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

The Celebrant begins the Offertory with a sentence of Scripture.

The choir now sings this

Anthem – And the Glory of the Lord

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together;
the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

Words: Isaiah 40:5

Music: George Frideric Handel (1685-1759)

The Nicene Creed

All stand and say

I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
and of all things visible and invisible;
And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of his Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father;
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary,
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered and was buried;
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of the Father;
and he shall come again, with glory,
to judge both the quick and the dead;
whose kingdom shall have no end.
And I believe in the Holy Ghost the Lord, and Giver of Life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son;
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified;
who spake by the Prophets.
And I believe one holy Catholic and Apostolic Church;
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins;

and I look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Celebrant bids the Intentions of the Eucharist, concluding

In peace let us pray to the Lord.

All kneel. The Deacon continues

Father, in this holy night your Son our Savior was born in human flesh. Renew your Church as the Body of Christ.
Mercy and truth have met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Mercy and truth have met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

In this holy night your Christ came as a light shining in the darkness. Bring comfort to all who suffer in the sadness of our world.
Mercy and truth have met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

In this holy night the angels sang, "Peace to God's people on earth." Strengthen those who work for peace and justice.
Mercy and truth have met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

In this holy night shepherds in the field heard good tidings of joy. Give us grace to preach the gospel of Christ's redemption.
Mercy and truth have met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

In this holy night strangers found the Holy Family, and saw the baby lying in the manger. Bless our homes and all whom we love.
Mercy and truth have met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

In this holy night heaven is come to earth, and earth is raised to heaven. Hold in your hand all those who have passed through death in the hope of your coming kingdom.
Mercy and truth have met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

In this holy night Christians the world over celebrate Christ's birth. Open our hearts that he may be born in us today.
Mercy and truth have met together;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

The Celebrant concludes the Intercessions as follows

Father, in this holy night angels and shepherds worshiped at the manger throne. Receive the worship we offer in fellowship with blessed Mary, Saint Joseph, and all the Saints, through him who is your Word made flesh, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.
