THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right, that we, who can not exist without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST LESSON - A Reading from the Second Book of Kings

Elijah went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: "It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors." Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, "Get up and eat." He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. The angel of the Lord came a second time, touched him, and said, "Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you." He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God. (19:4-8)

GRADUAL - Benedicam Dominum, sung by all

- 1 I will bless the Lord at all / times; *
his praise shall ever be in my / mouth.
- 2 I will glory in the / Lord; *
let the humble hear and re - / joice.
- 3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the / Lord; *
let us exalt his Name to - / gether.
- 4 I sought the Lord, and he / answered me *
and delivered me out of all my / terror.
- 5 Look upon him and be / radiant, *
and let not your faces be a - / shamed.
- 6 I called in my affliction and the Lord / heard me *
and saved me from all my / troubles.
- 7 The angel of the Lord encompasses those who / fear him, *
and he will de - / liver them.
- 8 Taste and see that the Lord is / good; *
happy are they who trust in / him!

Words: Psalm 34: 1-8

THE SECOND LESSON - A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Ephesians

So then, putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbors, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil. Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labor and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy. Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. (4:25-5:2)

SEQUENCE: 332 - St. Flavian

The people stand and turn to face the Book of Gospels.

THE HOLY GOSPEL of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." They were saying, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven?'" Jesus answered them, "Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh." (6:35, 41-51)

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Celebrant Together let us seek the Lord as we offer our petitions, and take refuge in the Lord's loving-kindness.

Assisting Priest That all who minister to the members of the Church, especially Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Francis, the Bishop of Rome; Bartholomew, the Ecumenical Patriarch; Michael, our Presiding Bishop; William, our Diocesan; Daniel, our Assisting Bishop; and Marshall and Paul, our Priests; will taste the Lord's goodness in their service to God's people,
Lord, hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

That international organizations will taste the Lord's goodness in their efforts for peace and justice,
Lord, hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

That the poor will taste the Lord's goodness in our generous works of charity,
Lord, hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

That we who worship here will taste the Lord's goodness on our journey to God's dwelling-place,
Lord, hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

That each member of the Vestry will be strengthened by the Bread of Life in discerning suitable candidates to serve as Bethesda's next Rector,
Lord, hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

That those who have died will taste the Lord's goodness in the gift of eternal life,
Lord, hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

Celebrant Lord God, your Son leads us on the way of love. Draw us to him in this Eucharist, so that we may rejoice in him now, and live with him in your presence, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Celebrant and People

Lord Jesus Christ, when you come among us, you proclaim the Kingdom of God in this and every place: Grant that your presence and power will make this parish church a home of spiritual refreshment and healing. We acknowledge our thankfulness to you for the generosity of those who have and continue to support our Capital Campaign. Open our loving hearts so that our mission may prosper and your Name be glorified. This we ask through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Assisting Priest Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against thee in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved thee with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in thy will, and walk in thy ways, to the glory of thy name. Amen.

The Celebrant concludes with an Absolution.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with thy spirit.
