THE SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION:
EASTER DAY
1 APRIL 2018

Welcome

---

Welcome to Bethesda for the celebration of Jesus' Resurrection.

Hymn writers capture the significance of Easter with both eloquence and power:

At the Lamb's high feast we sing, praise to our victorious King...

Jesus, the health of the world, enlighten our minds, thou Redeemer,

Jesus Christ is risen today, Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!

As we sing these words this morning, let each of us be mindful that God did something about evil in Christ. Easter means that all the suffering, physical and mental, which our Lord went through, the real and total death which destroyed him, he underwent undeservedly to give his conquest to all humankind. The Resurrection is not his personal triumph, but God's gift of the Living Lord in communion with whom we can share his victory. This is all pro nobis, for us. "God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself." [2 Corinthians 5:19] Indeed. Alleluia!

Devotedly,

The Very Reverend Marshall J. Vang
Interim Rector

The First Lesson – A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter began to speak to the gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ--he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name." (10:34-43)

          his mercy endures for ever.
2        Let Israel now proclaim, *
          "His mercy endures for ever."
14       The LORD is my strength and my song, * and he has become my salvation.
15       There is a sound of exultation and victory * in the tents of the righteous:
16       "The right hand of the LORD has triumphed! *
          the right hand of the LORD is exalted!
          the right hand of the LORD has triumphed!"
17       I shall not die, but live, * and declare the works of the LORD.
18       The LORD has punished me sorely, * but he did not hand me over to death.
19       Open for me the gates of righteousness; *
          I will enter them;
          I will offer thanks to the LORD.
20       "This is the gate of the LORD; * he who is righteous may enter."
21       I will give thanks to you, for you answered me * and have become my salvation.
22       The same stone which the builders rejected * has become the chief cornerstone.

and it is marvelous in our eyes.
24 On this day the LORD has acted; *
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

The Second Lesson – A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you--unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them--though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe. (15:1-11)

The Holy Gospel

Deacon            The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People            Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes. But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her. (20:1-18)

The Nicene Creed

All stand.

Celebrant and People

I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
and of all things visible and invisible;
And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of his Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God, begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father;
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary,
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered and was buried;
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of the Father;
and he shall come again, with glory,
to judge both the quick and the dead;
whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost the Lord, and Giver of Life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son;
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified;
who spake by the Prophets.
And I believe one holy Catholic and Apostolic Church;
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins;
and I look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Deacon

In joy and hope let us pray to the Father:

The people kneel.

That our risen Savior may fill us with the joy of his glorious and life-giving resurrection:

we pray to the Father:

Hear our prayer.

That isolated and persecuted churches may find fresh strength in the good news of Easter,

we pray to the Father:

Hear our prayer.

That God may grant us humility to be subject to one another in Christian love,

we pray to the Father:

Hear our prayer.

That he may provide for those who lack food, work, or shelter,

we pray to the Father:
Hear our prayer.

That by his power war and famine may cease through all the world,
we pray to the Father:
Hear our prayer.

That he may reveal the light of his presence to the sick, the weak, and the dying, to comfort and strengthen them,
we pray to the Father:
Hear our prayer.

That by his grace the hearts and minds of our Vestry will be enlighten to identify the next Rector of Bethesda,
we pray to the Father:
Hear our prayer.

That, according to his promises, all who have died in the faith of the resurrection may be raised on the last day,
we pray to the Father:
Hear our prayer.

That he may send the fire of the Holy Spirit upon his people, so that we may bear faithful witness to his resurrection,
we pray to the Father:
Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant concludes the Intercessions with this Collect

Heavenly Father, you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son: grant that, as his death has recalled us to life, so his continual presence in us may raise us to eternal joy; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

All stand.

The Peace

Celebrant      The risen Christ came and stood among his disciples and said, “Peace be with you.” Then they were glad when they saw the Lord. Alleluia.

People            The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Then the Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

The Celebrant begins the Offertory with a sentence of Scripture.

While the people’s offering is being received, the choir sings this

Anthem – This Joyful Eastertide

This joyful Eastertide away with sin and sorrow!
My Love, the Crucified, hath sprung to life this morrow.

Had Christ, that once was slain, ne'er burst his three-day prison,
our faith had been in vain:
but now hath Christ arisen.

My flesh in hope shall rest,
and for a season slumber;
till trump from east to west shall wake the dead in number.

Death's flood hath lost its chill,
since Jesus crossed the river;
Lover of souls, from ill
my passing soul deliver.

Words: Dutch Carol
Music: William H. Harris (1883-1973)

All now stand and sing the following

Hymn 174

The Great Thanksgiving    Eucharistic Prayer II

The people remain standing.

The Celebrant faces them and sings

                  The Lord be with you.
People       And with thy spirit.
Celebrant   Lift up your hearts.
People       We lift them up unto the Lord.
Celebrant   Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.
People       It is meet and right so to do.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God.

But chiefly we are bound to praise thee for the glorious resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the very Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and hath taken away the sin of the world; who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life again hath won for us everlasting life.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

Sanctus and Benedictus sung by the Choir and People

The image shows a musical score for a vocal part, likely for a choir or soloist. It consists of three staves of music in a 2/4 time signature with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The first staff begins with a forte (f) dynamic and includes markings for cresc. (crescendo), rall. (rallentando), and ff (fortissimo). The lyrics under the first staff are: "Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of hosts, heav-en and earth are full of thy". The second staff starts with a mezzo-forte (mp) dynamic and includes the lyrics: "glo - ry. Glo-ry be to thee, O Lord most High. Bless-ed is he that". The third staff continues with a forte (f) dynamic and includes the lyrics: "com-eth in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est." The music concludes with a fermata over the final note.

The people kneel.

Then the Celebrant continues

All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
