Bp Love matter continues; Deanery met and there appears to be dissention
Church Development website notes that Albany Diocese is behind in payment of annual assessments (national).

Income tax: new tax preparations for clergy reduce the deductions. Recommendation that clergy NOT live in church-provided housing. Housing allowances are preferable to allow for clergy ownership of the home and tax deduction. (John V suggests sale of rectory to incoming Rector or sale of rectory may allow funds for mortgage)

Churchwarden's Report:

Senior Warden: D. Miller

Mercy House: expect letter of intent for rental from County for housing of homeless persons. Transition Services' may also fill spaces. Occupancy is looking sufficient. Gordon is speaking with neighboring owners and getting positive feedback. Marcia McD noted that T. Foster at UPH will not meet with Gordon; we are protected by First Am and RILUPA—zoning is in our favor.

Junior Warden: C. Berheide

Elaine has asked to update Quickbooks: auditors want updated edition and to allow for management of Mercy House (cost $379)

Roof: another leak appeared; Cost $900 to fix this issue. Work authorized as there were funds left from the prior repair figures.

Search: telephone calls finished; will formulate questions for references. Expect visits in May. Discussion of visit protocol, including meeting with candidate. Position is advertised through March. Recommendation that inexperienced candidate be eliminated from the pool.

Treasurer's Report: J. Vander Veer:

P&P continues generally OK; expenses below budget and well below 2018.

We are generally very close to budget—both income and expenses for Jan -Feb 2019

Credit from diocese in January 2019 for overpayment one month in 2018

Aging: very close to up-to-date. One old charge from Verizon (July 2018) unpaid from cancellation of phone contract and some bills from end-Feb. Audit bill from Jan generally paid over time

No updates on pledging

P. Houde mentioned hearing some complaints about the envelopes this year: may be able to consider offering a choice of getting envelopes or not in future.

Rent: Baptist church is asking for a ten (10%) percent increase to $330. John met with Jeff Seagrave from the Baptist Church to discuss our objections to this amount. Continuing concerns over individuals
